Police get tough on illegal parking

BY JACK GROVE

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

TWENTY illegally parked cars on Haverhill's High Street were issued with warnings in a single morning as part of a police crackdown.

The blitz follows pleas by shops, businesses and residents who are fed up with cars parked on double yellow lines.

Officers agreed to get tough with motorists after the problem was raised at a monthly police meeting on Monday.

New signs warning people about the harder stance have been installed and officers will issue warnings over the next few weeks before handing out £30 on-the-spot fines.

Sgt Sarah Bartley, from Haverhill police station, said: "We have been taking registration numbers and have issued warnings.

"If we find the same motorists doing the same thing, they may find themselves with a £30 fine.

"We no longer have a full-time traffic warden and people have got into the habit of parking on double yellow lines.

"Instead of just going out and slapping cars with tickets, we want to educate people first.

"We will give people two or three weeks and then parking enforcement will begin.

Warning to drivers over illegal parking

"In one morning there were 20 people parked illegally in one area. It's obviously a big problem for us."

One resident who attended the Safer Neighbourhood meeting at Parkway Middle School said parking on the High Street was the top priority for almost everyone present.

The man, who did not wish to be named, said: "The meeting was split into groups of six, who discussed their main concerns. Every single table came back with the same answer – cars on the High Street."

"It's a massive problem and police need to reclaim the street by getting tough."

Gordon Mussett, town clerk at Haverhill Town Council, said: "Almost without exception everyone in the room felt parking in High Street, Queen Street and other part of the town was being totally abused."

"Cars are actually parking directly on the pavement, which blocks the path for prams, wheelchair users and pedestrians."

"Sometimes cars have driven up to people talking on the pavement and forced them to move off – it's just not acceptable."

"Lots of money has been spent on repairing pavements and parking heavy cars on them is causing significant damage too."

Plans to pedestrianise Haverhill town centre will be subject to a public inquiry in September.

Other priorities adopted by police focused on anti-social behaviour in Haverhill's Recreation Ground and on the railway lines near the Chalkstone estate.

Officers will step up patrols to prevent drinking in the no-alcohol zone, drug use, noise and smashed bottles in the playing area.

Freddie wins top dog in canine photo match

ADORABLE eyes have won a pretty pooch the top prize in a dog portrait competition.

Petco, which is based in the Charterhouse Trading Estate in Sturmer Road, Haverhill, hosted photo sessions in early March where owners could take their canine friends to pose for professional photographs.

Dozens of people took up the free opportunity courtesy of the Dog Portrait Company with many buying pictures afterwards, but every dog was also entered into a contest for the best portrait.

And it was Louise Harris, of Manor Farm Close, who received the prize of a special framed print of winning Chihuahua/Jack Russell crossbreed Freddie.

The 36-year-old, who works as an administrator in Highpoint prison, said: "Freddie was just three months old at the time and I took him into town to meet people – it was his first real trip out and about."

"We went to the photo session and it was fun. The pictures were really good. I bought three small ones at the time but never expected to win the competition for the best dog."

Mrs Harris lives with husband Derek, 58. The couple also own two Labradors, nine cats, two rabbits and two guinea pigs.

She added: "Freddie has a lovely little character. I would describe him as a bit like a naughty schoolboy and he gets away with a lot."

"I think what won it for Freddie was his big eyes – they are just adorable. And he is very small."

"We will certainly be giving the picture pride of place on our wall at home."

Elliot Martin runs Petco in Haverhill with John Dipple. He said the event had been a success and they were in discussions to bring it back to the town.

He said: "It went really well and there was a really impressive turnout."

"All the pictures were of a very high standard and it must have been difficult for judges to choose between them."

Club staff to work for free

A POPULAR youth club is to continue despite losing its funding.

Castle Camps Youth Club, which has run in the village for more than 25 years, had faced closure after Cambridgeshire County Council axed its financial support.

But three of the four youth workers made redundant have agreed to work for free to keep the Friday night club open.

Castle Camps Parish Council has agreed to pay £25 a week towards the £41 cost of hiring the village hall. The remaining £16 will be raised by the youth club.

It means the council will need to raise £975 from its precept for the trial period, which ends in December.

About 30 children aged over 11 attend the club each week, although attendance can be as high as 60.

Waste site reopens after massive blaze

A WASTE recycling plant is set to reopen today just four days after it was hit by a massive fire.

About 40 firefighters were called to the recycling centre on the A1307 Haverhill bypass on Sunday after a blaze broke out shortly before 1pm.

Fire crews from Haverhill, Wickhambrook, Linton, Newmarket and Clare attended the scene, while a turntable ladder from Bury St Edmunds was used to spray the 100m by 200m metal building from above.

Residents in Helions Bumpstead were warned to close their windows after thick black smoke blew across to their homes.

Crews remained at the scene until Tuesday at 5pm when the incident was

BY JACK GROVE

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

finally closed.

Investigations are now taking place to determine the cause of the blaze and the extent of the damage.

But the waste centre is set to restart operations from today, Suffolk Fire Service has confirmed.

Special equipment to monitor air quality has been used by the Environment Agency, while environmental health officers have also monitored the situation.

Acrid smoke from burning waste material and plastic inside the unit made it difficult for the crews to fight the flames.

Paul Goodman, station manager at Haverhill, said: "There was plastic and all sorts of material in the building, so we didn't want to breathe it in."

Speaking on Monday, a spokesman for Suffolk Fire and Rescue Service issued a warning to people living in the area.

He said: "Public should be aware that a copious amount of black smoke is still issuing and the smoke plume is heading south west towards the Helions Bumpstead area."

"Residents in this vicinity are advised to close all windows and doors."

The fire service said much of the smoke came from the burning waste and the building suffered only minor damage.

Teen's nose broken as Facebook feud turns nasty

A TEENAGER suffered a broken nose after a Facebook feud turned violent.

The assault at the Newt Pond in School Lane, Haverhill, occurred after two groups of youths began exchanging comments on the social networking site, Ipswich Crown Court heard.

The youths later arranged to meet face to face and insults were traded before a scuffle broke out between a group of girls on July 6 last year.

John Kellett, prosecuting, told the court Shaun Harrison, 23, then lashed out at a 16-year-old boy, in defence of his girlfriend. The teenager sustained a broken nose from a single blow, the court heard.

In a statement the 16-year-old said swelling caused by the injury had forced him to take two weeks off work and the injury was still painful. Harrison was arrested and initially maintained his innocence, but changed his plea to guilty to a charge of assault causing actual bodily harm as his trial was due to begin this week.

Two other girls were convicted of an assault on a girl, in a case dealt with by magistrates.

Joanne Eley, defending Harrison, of Longbanks, Harlow, said: "This was completely out of character. It seems that his loyalty to his girlfriend got in the way of his clear thinking."

Harrison was made subject to a 12-month community order during which time he must complete 250 hours of unpaid work and pay £500 compensation to his victim.

CHILDREN and teachers have given the thumbs-up to their new £5.1 million primary school.

Youngsters at Clements Primary School moved into their new building in Greenfields Way, in Haverhill, on Monday ahead of the school's official opening in September.

Pupils were clearly impressed with the new eight-classroom school, which also includes a dining area, computer suite, library, larger playground, food technology kitchens and an eco-friendly roof covered by lawn.

Angela Fera, spokeswoman for Clements Primary, said: "It's a wonderful school and the children absolutely love it.

"All the moving was done over half-term, so students have arrived for the first time this week and they are amazed by it."

The new school, which replaces the old 1960s premises in Clarendon Road, will also teach Year 6 students for the first time – expanding the school's roll from 195 pupils to 225.

The change is part of the move towards a two-tier education system in Suffolk, which will see Haverhill's three middle schools close next month.

Mrs Fera added: "We did not have enough space at the other school and there was no opportunity to expand because of the school's location.

“It's a wonderful school and the children absolutely love it. The move has gone very smoothly and we are back to a normal timetable”

— Angela Fera

“The move to Greenfields Road allows us to take on more pupils and there is also a huge outdoor area for children.

“The move has gone very smoothly and we are back to a normal timetable. It's business as usual.”

The old Clarendon Road school is set to be demolished over the next few months and will become a public green space.

Haverhill's three middle schools – Chalkstone Way, Castle Hill and Parkway – are set to close next month, with Year 7 and 8 attending standard 11-18 comprehensives instead of upper schools.

The decision is part of plans by Suffolk County Council in 2007 to axe 40 middle schools – which were pushed through despite more than 10,000 parents objecting in a petition.

'Changes will help our pupils thrive'

PUPILS in Haverhill will "thrive" under a long-awaited school shake-up, a head teacher claims.

The first middle school pupils arrived at Samuel Ward Academy on Monday in a bid to integrate Year 7s and 8s into standard 11-18 comprehensives.

Three middle schools in Haverhill – Chalkstone, Parkway and Castle Manor – will close next month as part of plans to create a two-tier education system across Suffolk.

New buildings at the town's existing upper schools have been built to accommodate the extra pupils, with Year 8s heading to Samuel Ward before the official opening of the 11-18 secondary in September.

Howard Lay, principal at the Chalkstone Way college, believed both younger and older pupils would benefit from attending school together.

He said: "We've used this opportunity to restructure and reshape the school completely.

"We have introduced a house system, which will encourage links between different year groups and promote competition.

"We've introduced a mentoring scheme where older pupils can help young pupils. The changeover also allows older pupils to develop leadership skills and offer help to younger students.

BY JACK GROVE

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

"We will even be getting some of our sixth-formers to teach younger years. We will pay them and they can work with individuals or small groups in after-school classes.

"Often they've just completed their GCSE exams and know exactly what's needed when it comes to revision and learning.

"We've really embraced the change and think pupils will thrive in the new set-up.

"We've had three years to plan this and things have gone very smoothly. We've invited the Year 8s here and they have started their Year 9 studies earlier.

"In a few weeks, we will have the Year 7s here to start Year 8 and then we'll be doing some introductory classes for Year 6 ahead of their start in Year 7 in September."

From September, the school will have about 1,300 pupils compared the 950 at the existing school.

Mr Lay added: "We've made transformational changes to the school in terms of the curriculum and focus of learning.

"Parents seem to be keen on the changes too. We've only about four places left for Year 7 and seven for Year 8 next year."

Lorry driver's lucky escape from blaze

A STOLEN car was set on fire and then rolled into a lorry, endangering the life of a sleeping driver.

Offenders set alight a black VW Golf – which had been stolen from Abington in Cambridgeshire hours earlier – at around 1am last Friday in Homefield Road, Haverhill.

The burning vehicle then rolled into a parked lorry in the industrial estate, which also caught fire.

A spokeswoman for Suffolk police said: "The lorry driver was asleep in his cab, he was awoken by a bang and managed to escape. He was shaken but unhurt.

"Both the car and cab were destroyed."

Two fire crews from Haverhill attended the scene during the early hours of the morning and doused the car and the heavy goods vehicle with one hose reel jet, and used four sets of breathing apparatus.

The police want to speak to anyone who may have seen any suspicious people or vehicles in the industrial area in the early hours of the morning.

Calls in relation to this incident should be made to Pc Cheryl Claydon at Haverhill Police on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Off-duty Pc honoured for bravery

A POLICEMAN who pulled a motorist from a burning car has been commended for his bravery.

Pc Matthew Hammill, from Haverhill Neighbourhood Response Team, made the dramatic rescue while off-duty after he arrived at a crash scene to find an overturned car.

He was awarded a chief officer's commendation at a ceremony in Ipswich yesterday.

Fifteen other officers were presented with awards by Suffolk Constabulary.

Family picnic was a big hit

Sir, I am writing to thank the Chalkstone Association of Tenants and Residents (CATRA) for the outstanding event of the half term week.

The Community Family Picnic, supported by Haverhill Town Council, St Edmundsbury Council, fire and police services, St John Ambulance and our leisure centre staff, offered an excellent opportunity for families from all over the town to enjoy an outdoor event together at little cost.

The CATRA committee can be proud of this remarkable achievement. It is truly inspiring to encounter a local community group, with only modest funding, mobilising extensive support to create a memorable day out for all the community.

Families from miles around were able to enjoy free activities and events in a relaxed and safe atmosphere – my grandchildren are already asking when the next event will be!

I sincerely hope the many funders brought together by CATRA to enable this event will see the value of this occasion and continue to provide support for future years. Well done CATRA and all those attending.

Roger JF André
town councillor
East Ward

A day filled with fun and laughter

Sir, Through your paper the committee of CATRA would like to thank all who contributed to the Community Picnic held on Wednesday, June 1, which took place on the green behind the Chalkstone Community Centre.

There were many rides and attractions which were all free to the children. People came from all over the town and some outside of town.

There was much laughter and all seemed to enjoy the day. That made the hard work worthwhile. Hopefully we may be able to do it all again next year

Gwen Dalton

Firms eye top spot in On-Footse charity race

ALMOST 50 companies are already jostling for the top spots in the On-Footse Top 100 Index ranking as the competition heats up.

Dozens of businesses, including major corporate players and start-ups, have already signed up at least one worker to take part in the mile-long race at the University of Cambridge Athletics Track on Sunday, June 26, but there is still plenty of time left to register.

The firms lining up to take part and raise money for mental health charity Cam-mind include John Lewis, Halo Health and Fitness, CSR, and Mills and Reeve.

Aly Anderson, development manager at Cam-mind, said: "Most businesses have at least one employee who is keen on running either competitively or just for fun, and this event is designed to bring all those runners together for a bit of good-natured corporate competition."

"There are trophies up for grabs for the fastest man and woman, together with the coveted top places on the listing itself for the businesses whose employees run the quickest times – and an age-related handicap system will be in place to make the event as open as possible."

The event, backed by our sister paper, the Cambridge News, is being held to raise funds for Cam-mind's Wellbeing in the Workplace project, which will see the charity's self-help library supplemented with books and resources, a training room developed for the charity's new and existing workshops, and a Wellbeing in the Workplace resource for businesses to borrow free of charge.

Aly said: "We already offer the highly regarded Mental Health First Aid (MHFA) course locally and will shortly be launching our stress-busting, team-building Laughter Workshops.

"We now want to develop a range of other services and resources to support the wellbeing of local employees – and to help managers and HR professionals in their roles.

The entry fee for the race is £30, and employers are asked to stage a fundraising event for the charity. Contact Wendy Von Niebel on (01638) 661820, or download a registration form from www.footse100.org.

Chef cooks up winning poem

BY ADAM LUKE

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

AN AMBITIOUS chef has been inspired to reach for the very top of her profession after a competition win earned her the right to cook in a celebrity chef's kitchen.

Hannah Jones, of Eastern Way, Haverhill, was picked from thousands of hopefuls after she entered a national newspaper contest to work at Rick Stein's critically acclaimed Seafood Restaurant.

The 27-year-old, who lives with daughter Georgia, 7, son Jamie, 3, and partner Matthew Rulten, impressed the selection panel with a poem and found herself on the way to Padstow in Cornwall to work at the famous eatery.

She said: "I saw the competition in The Sun two months ago and thought I might as well go for it.

"I wrote the poem because I thought it was something different and it showed my passion for cooking and why I wanted to win.

"I was shocked but so happy to hear I was one of just three people to get the chance to spend a week at the restaurant."

Hannah, who has run her own business from home for four months called Hannah's Buns, producing wedding cakes and cupcakes, stayed in staff accommodation when she wasn't involved in all processes in the kitchen.

She said: "It was an amazing experience. It was hard work with long days but it was great to have the chance to work on every section, including pastry, larder and putting together the dishes.

"I met Rick Stein's son and he showed me how to prepare lobsters and crabs. Everyone there was really lovely and taught me a lot."

The restaurant takes pride in the freshness of its fish which come straight from the nearby harbour every day. The Seafood Restaurant is one of four venues Stein has put his name to in the town.

Hannah, a former West Suffolk

College student and chef at the Hundon Plough and The Swan in Lavenham added: "It has inspired me to do more with fish and I now feel a lot more confident about going into different kitchens.

"Once Jamie is in school I will be going back into the kitchen."

A Kitchen Sonnet

To be the best chef is my desire
The whites, the hats the whole attire
The smell, the buzz – my heart starts to race
I can't seem to get enough of this place.

Cooking to me, is my heart and soul
Without this passion I'm simply not whole.
This opportunity, a dream come true
To learn from an expert just like you.
To work in your restaurant what a delight.
I'd be willing to cook all day and all night.

To learn every part of this wonderful trade

Something to treasure much more than self made.
Chances like this are so very rare
Like an elegant tarte tatin and caramelised pear.

"Check on" calls the head chef, the kitchens alert
Prepared and created a sumptuous dessert.
From starters, to pastry to sauce and doughs
The hype of the kitchen on the pass the food goes.

The reason why, you should pick me
Is that it's written in my destiny.
To be a great chef, one of the best
So please let me win this great contest.

What should I do with tax credits package?

Q: I've got an official package through the post about my tax credits but I'm not really sure what I'm meant to do with it. Can you help?

A: If you've been getting tax credits, you should have received an annual review pack (called a 'renewals pack') from HM Revenue and Customs (HMRC).

Make sure you look at this pack and fill in any forms you need to as soon as possible – the deadline is July 31. You must do this even if you are no longer getting any money or expect payments to end soon. If you don't do this by July 31: ■ you may have to repay any money you've received since April 6;

■ if you're still getting payments, these will stop. HMRC need you to look at the pack so that they can work out how much your payments should be for the current tax year and make sure they paid you the right amount for the last tax year.

Read through the pack carefully to check that all the information about you is correct and whether you need to contact HMRC – you can either do this by phone, or by sending your form back by post to the Tax Credit Office.

Haverhill Citizens Advice Bureau this month looks at what taxpayers should do with the HM Revenue and Customs 'renewals pack'

Sometimes it can be difficult to work out what information to put on the form. If you need help filling in the form, there are videos to help you. You can watch the videos online at: www.direct.gov.uk.

If you don't get anything about your tax credits, contact the tax credit helpline on 0845 300 3900.

For more information about the tax credits annual review pack, go to www.direct.gov.uk. There is also more information about tax credits on the Citizens Advice website www.adviceguide.org.uk where you can also find contact details of your nearest CAB. Talk to a CAB adviser if you need help with understanding or completing your annual review pack.

Haverhill CAB can be found at the Centre for Voluntary Agencies, in Lower Downs Slade, Haverhill, CB9 9HB.

The bureau is open for anybody to drop in without an appointment between 10am-1.30pm on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday.

The bureau operates a 'gateway' system for interviews. You will be given a short introductory interview (either face-to-face or by telephone) to help decide how you can best be assisted. As a result, you may be given self-help information or asked to attend an appointment at the bureau.

Fitness club joins huge zumba event

A TEAM of 47 women from a local fitness club will take part in a record-breaking zumbathon.

Stacey Hunt, from Real Bodies Health and Fitness in Haverhill, will be joined by members of her zumba class on Saturday as they travel to London to take part in the biggest outdoor dance fitness event ever.

More than 5,000 people will gather in Twickenham to join in the party atmosphere and raise money for the Meningitis Trust, the British Heart Foundation and Shooting Star Hospice.

Stacey, an instructor at the Hollands Road gym for the past four months, said: "I heard about the event a while ago when I got a letter... saying they were trying for the biggest ever in Europe."

"I told all my classes and they were excited to get involved."

The 22-year-old, who lives in Stockley Close, Haverhill, said: "The Meningitis Trust is particularly close to my heart because when I was 14 I was diagnosed with meningococemia, which is an acute and potentially life-threatening infection of the bloodstream."

"I experienced at first hand the care offered in the Addenbrooke's paediatric intensive care unit and I would love to help."

The zumbathon involves participants completing three hours of dance fitness with an international theme. Instructors lead from stages at the front.

Barclays Bank will match what the Haverhill women raise beyond the £700 mark. You can still donate via www.justgiving.com/Realbodies

Stacey added her thanks to Ruffles Coaches, Xcel print and promotions, and Real Bodies.

The popular event featured a children's kite contest, a magician, the "Great Wratting Stakes", a raffle and more than 25 stalls and games spread across the green. A highlight for many was the large summer barbecue and accompanying seasonal cocktails and cream teas, which people enjoyed while they listened to the Haverhill Silver band, playing all afternoon.

Prison monitor critical of cuts

BY JACK GROVE

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

SAFETY and security at a prison near Haverhill could be compromised if planned cuts are made, a watchdog has warned.

The concerns over future staffing levels at HMP Highpoint have been raised in a report by the Independent Monitoring Board into conditions at the category C prison near Stradishall.

Inspectors praised the "dedication and commitment of staff", but raised doubts about their ability to cope if staffing levels fell following imminent budget cuts.

Other worries centred on the decision to merge the 920-place prison with the neighbouring HMP Edmunds Hill in April, which would see 1,300 men accommodated over the two sites.

The report's authors said: "At present staffing levels permit a Concern: a watchdog has issued a warning over future prison staffing.

prompt and effective response to any incident that may occur.

"With staff stretched this may not be possible and safety and security could be compromised.

"The board also fears that the savings required may make it increasingly difficult to maintain the current regime and that education, training and resettlement opportunities might also suffer."

The report praised many aspects of the prison, where pop star George Michael served his eight-week jail sentence for dangerous driving last year, including its crackdown on illicit booze, drugs and mobile phones.

Just 32 phones were seized in 2010 compared with 98 in 2008 and 63 in 2009, while quantities of cannabis seized fell from 1,849g three years ago to 114g last year.

Home-brewed 'hooch' seized also fell from 321 litres in 2008 to 30 litres last year.

But inspectors still had "grave concerns" about the help given to inmates with mental health problems.

They also reported "serious delays" of up to two weeks for men awaiting prescription drugs to treat heart conditions and depression.

Prisoners also had to wait up to 14 weeks for dental treatment after a new provider took over.

Bike buddies hop in saddle for epic ride

BY ADAM LUKE

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

THREE superfit cyclists have set off on an incredible 900-mile ride across Britain.

Glenn Bevan, a fitness instructor at Haverhill Leisure Centre gym, is cycling from Land's End to John O'Groats with gym members Dale Nunn and Ed Campbell.

Leaving the Cornish landmark on Monday, the three men will complete the epic cycle ride in 11 days, finishing at the top of Scotland next Friday.

The trio will also raise £1,000 through sponsorship for St Nicholas Hospice.

Glenn, 27, from Sturmer, is no stranger to challenges. He cycled to Paris in 2008 and completed the three peaks challenge, climbing Snowdon, Scafell Pike and Ben Nevis, in June last year.

This latest challenge follows months of training with Dale, 39, of Ruffles Road, Haverhill, and Ed, 25, of Dovehouse Road, Haverhill.

Glenn said: "We wanted to challenge ourselves and have something to aim for in terms of fitness while raising money for a local charity."

"We have been training hard over the last few months, both on the bikes on the road and in the gym, and we will average around 90 miles a day. We are really looking forward to it."

Back in the saddle: Glenn Bevan with friend Nathan Patterson after his cycling challenge to Paris in 2008. This time he has joined mates Ed Campbell and Dale Nunn for a cross-country adventure from Land's End to John O'Groats.

Council to probe chief's expenses

BY JENNIE BAKER

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

EXPENSES claims made by Suffolk County Council's chief executive are set to come under close scrutiny.

The county council's dismissal appeals committee was asked to look into whistle-blowing allegations levelled against Andrea Hill, the council's chief executive, but rather than resolving the complaint, the committee decided her expenses claims warranted further investigation.

A team will report back to the committee with its findings on June 24.

Mrs Hill had been set to return from leave in early May, but she has been asked to take extended leave while anonymous complaints levelled against her were investigated.

The dismissals appeals committee met last Friday to discuss the matter, and while it ruled some of the accusations had been resolved, it saw fit to examine a number of the allegations, as well as her expense claims, more closely.

The committee has ruled

Closer examination: Suffolk County Council chief executive Andrea Hill is still on leave after the dismissal appeals committee said allegation by a whistle-blower warranted further investigation.

the head of strategic HR, another senior officer implicated by the whistle-blower, had no case to answer.

Speaking on the day of the meeting, a spokesman for the council said: "The dismissals appeals committee today received a preliminary report into whistle blowing allegations made against Andrea Hill.

"The committee was able to resolve some of the allegations, however it felt that a number required further investigation.

"In addition, as a result of FOI requests into expense claims by Andrea Hill, the committee has asked the investigation team to review those claims.

"The findings will be reported to the committee at their meeting on June 24.

"Andrea Hill will remain on extended leave by mutual consent until that date."

Information obtained through a Freedom of Information request showed Mrs Hill had claimed £1,784.72 for hotel stays during 2010/2011, including a night in Aldeburgh's Brudenell Hotel, which cost £120.

She also spent three nights in the Sandbanks hotel near Bournemouth which cost £205 a night, while her colleagues attending the same conference stayed in a hotel at £85 a night.

Amazing auction items at big ball

FANCY cruising around at the weekend in a Saab convertible, going on a helicopter ride or enjoying a beauty makeover?

These are just some of the auction lots up for grabs at the Moulin Rouge Ball, the fundraising extravaganza being organised by the Weekly News charity, Press Relief.

The big event is scheduled for Friday June 24, at Chilford Hall in Linton, and is aimed at raising money for Press Relief and Arthur Rank Hospice.

Tom Bircham, events manager at the Weekly News, said: "We've had some really great prizes contributed for the ball, and the good news is that there are still tickets available for the event."

Press Relief is the Weekly News community fund, which is used to help needy people and good causes in the region.

Arthur Rank Hospice is the caring centre in Cambridge for people with cancer and other illnesses. It also provides support to the relatives, friends and professionals involved with their care.

The French-themed ball will include can-can dancers, stilt walkers and an after-dinner casino.

Many of the auction items, donated by local businesses, are one-off experiences that money cannot buy.

Cambridge firm Marshall's will provide a tour of their giant aerospace hangars, followed by lunch in the boardroom, Huntingdon Racecourse has offered a half-year pass, and Adnams is laying on the chance to be a brewer for the day.

Tickets for the ball cost £85 each, or a table for 10 costs £850. To book tickets, contact (01223) 434 378 or email amanda.scarborough@cambridge-news.co.uk

Current cash squeeze is 'just like wartime misery'

FAMILY budgets are under the cosh – and this week, fresh blows have come raining down on households in our region.

Energy company Scottish Power announced it was raising gas bills by 19 per cent and electricity tariffs by 10 per cent, and figures revealed that food prices were rising at their fastest rate for two years – one pensioner struggling to make ends meet said it reminded her of wartime deprivation and rationing.

It is now expected that other energy providers, including British Gas and npower, will follow suit and put their prices up.

On the food front, figures released yesterday showed that retail prices shot up nearly 5 per cent in the past 12 months, driven by the soaring cost of corn, wheat and sugar. Corn prices rocketed by 112 per cent, wheat shot up by 72 per cent, and sugar went up 51 per cent, the British Retail Consortium said.

Rachel Talbot, chief executive of Cambridge Citizens Advice Bureau

BY CHRIS ELLIOTT

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

(CAB), said the latest gas and electricity rises could push more families into "fuel poverty" – where they simply could not afford to pay their bills.

She said: "Our figures show that in 2006-2007, we dealt with a total of about £15,000 worth of fuel bills that people came to us saying they couldn't pay.

"In 2009/2010, that figure increased nearly sevenfold to £100,000. That is a quite staggering increase – and I'm sure that when the next set of figures becomes available, in view of all the rises in utility bills recently, we will see the figure rise much higher.

"In the case of food, we have been running a food voucher scheme, where we give people vouchers that they can spend at a local food bank, and we've had big demand for them. It's quite bizarre that in a place like Cambridge, which is seen as wealthy, there are people who need food vouchers."

She said CAB staff around the region were doing their best to advise families and individuals on how best to cope with the pressure of spiralling prices.

She said: "With energy prices, the best advice is often to seek out a fixed tariff if possible, and in general, people who have problems making ends meet must sit down and make a list of what they have to pay out – and ensure that they put the payments with the greatest priority at the top of that list."

It has been suggested that the Government should step in to curb price rises by the utility companies, but a spokesman for Cambridgeshire

Older People's Enterprise, which campaigns on issues relating to people aged over 50, said: "That sort of thing hasn't worked in the past. A better pension for older people would help."

For one pensioner, the rising cost of food and fuel has evoked grim memories of life 70 years ago – during the Second World War.

Marjorie Boorman, 94, lives with her disabled son Richard, who is in his 60s, in a bungalow at Chatteris, and faces a daily struggle to pay the bills.

She said: "I get my gas and electricity from E.ON, and I've got gas heating as well as a gas cooker, so the cost just keeps on going up and up. The companies keep on increasing their prices, and they know they can do that because we have to buy what they're selling. People have to keep warm."

"The cost of food has made us change our diet. Having a steak is a luxury. Instead, it's chicken or neck of lamb cooked in a casserole because it's cheaper."

"When I see the price of something, the alarm bells ring, and I tell my son we have to cut that item out."

"At the moment, it's like it was during the war, when we had next to nothing – and rationing."

How to stretch those pounds and pennies . . .

■ Before shopping for food, make a list – supermarkets spend a small fortune on persuading people to buy things on impulse, and sticking to a list will forestall a shock at the checkout.

■ Cut electricity bills by simply switching things off – lights, TV sets and other appliances need not be on permanently. Only use washing machines or dishwashers on full load.

■ Cut gas bills by using fewer rings on the cooker – vegetables can be cooked together rather than in separate pans, and slow cookers and microwave ovens are more economical than conventional ovens.

■ Choose a fuel bill payment method that offers a discount. Some fuel suppliers offer a discount to customers who pay by direct debit, standing order, a fixed payment budget scheme or a flexible payments scheme.

Man grabs boy, 12 near sports ground

A 12-YEAR-OLD cyclist was grabbed by a man after an altercation near a Haverhill sports ground.

The boy was riding near the sports ground in Ehringshausen Way between 11am and 11.30am last Friday when he approached the man and a woman.

He rode onto the grass to avoid them, but the man grabbed him

BY JACK GROVE

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

and shouted at him.

The boy called his mother and the man was also abusive to her.

The man threw the boy's phone down before the boy picked it up and left.

The man is described as white, around 60 years old and was wearing a cream hat, shorts, shoes with white straps, long white socks and glasses.

The woman is described as in her 20s, of large build and was wearing a black top.

Anyone with any information about this incident should call Pc Matthew Dale at Haverhill police station on (01284) 774100 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555111.

Police warning after spate of car break-ins

WARNINGS have been issued after a surge in thefts from vehicles in Haverhill.

Officers have told owners to take care after 13 sat-navs were stolen from cars in the past two months.

Six sets of tools worth thousands of pounds have also been taken from the back of vans parked overnight in recent weeks.

Pc Mike Potter, of Haverhill Safer Neighbourhood Team, said any trace of evidence that valuable items might be in a vehicle could alert thieves.

Holders for sat-navs and even marks left on the windscreen by suckers could be a give-away.

He said: "We realise this can be an inconvenience to members of the community, but it is the way to prevent thefts.

"Remove all equipment and any trace of it being used. Another question is about where the stuff is going. If you see transactions in a pub or on the street where a sat-nav is being offered for sale without the box, please let us know."

Follow the signs on tour of historic town

DEAF people in Haverhill have been invited on a guided tour of an historical town.

The Suffolk Deaf Association excursion will be interpreted with British Sign Language, offering people of all ages - deaf or hard of hearing - the chance to explore Bury St Edmunds.

The hour-long tour will start at the tourist information office in Angel Hill, Bury at 11am on July 23 and end at the Suffolk Deaf Association Centre in Northgate Street, where there will be an exhibition about the centre.

The event is free but a barbecue after the event will be £5 for adults and £2.50 for children under 5.

He's still in love with a beautiful woman . . .

DENNIS Locorriere, the beautiful and instantly recognisable voice of Dr Hook, comes to Haverhill Arts Centre on his Alone Again Tour on Thursday, June 16 with a special guest performance by British singer/songwriter Emily Maguire.

Dennis Locorriere made his name with Dr Hook in the 1970s with hits such as When You're in Love with a Beautiful Woman and A Little Bit More and has since enjoyed considerable success in his own right.

Although a member of one of the supergroups of the 1970s and 80s (Dr Hook amassed more than 60 gold and platinum records and had number one hits in more than 42 countries), Dennis's solo career has been equally as illustrious. His songwriting talents have seen him pen songs that have been recorded by Bob Dylan, Olivia

Rewind to the 70s and 80s and experience the sounds of one of the classic groups from the era as Dr Hook frontman Dennis Locorriere takes to the stage in Haverhill

Newton-John, Waylon Jennings, Willie Nelson, and Dolly Parton.

In March 2008, Dennis toured the UK as a guest member of Bill Wyman's Rhythm Kings and in the same year guested at Joe Brown's 50th Anniversary Concert at The Royal Albert Hall.

In February last year, The Post Cool Tour album tour took to the road with Andy Fairweather Low & The Low Riders.

This concert celebrates the very best of Dennis's solo work and the wonderful catalogue of classic songs and recordings from his former band, Dr Hook.

A few facts for fans:

■ Dennis's surname is pronounced Low-Corri-Air and is Italian for 'messenger'

■ His first band broke up on the way home from a Who concert in New Jersey because they figured they could never get to be that good.

■ Dennis appeared naked on The Old Grey Whistle Test while a member of Dr Hook

■ Dr Hook's big selling A Little Bit More album began life as the first Dennis Locorriere solo album but was released as a Hook project in an effort to raise the band's status after their 1976 bankruptcy – and it worked.

■ Songs written by or performed by Dennis (solo or as a member of Dr Hook) have now sold more than 50 million copies.

■ The show starts at 8pm. Tickets are £20 and available from (0144) 714140 or www.haverhillartscentre.co.uk

I WRITE THE SONGS: Dennis Locorriere has penned tracks for Bob Dylan and Dolly Parton.

Salute to the Floyd

COMBINE a laser show, the "authentic sounds" of Pink Floyd and eight enthusiastic musicians and you will get what promises to be a fully-fledged tribute night.

Led by Alex Tsentides, from Saffron Walden, The Pink Floyd Dimensions are a group of friends from Walden and Cambridge with a passion for music and a love of Pink Floyd.

They will be putting on what they are calling a "coming home" show at The Junction, in Cambridge, next week.

Some of the group members have known each other since they were 16, Alex said, and with their ages ranging from 26 to 51, they each bring something different to the show.

Alex added: "There are a lot of tribute acts about but we're genuinely a group of friends that love the music of Pink Floyd."

"All of us at some point have been or are currently professional musicians and I think our unique selling point is that we take what is on one of the records and try to create that in a live environment."

"It's hard to do and once you start looking into the music there are many layers of sound – that's why there's so many of us to recreate the best sound possible, but live."

"We're one of the most authentic sounding Pink Floyd tributes that is out there."

With the majority of the group from Saffron Walden, a keyboard player from Bury St Edmunds and guitarist from Burwell, The Pink Floyd Dimensions are a truly local group.

Despite performing in a number of smaller venues including Saffron Walden Town Hall and Bishop's Stortford Festival, the upcoming gig at The Junction is important for the group, Alex said.

"We'll be putting on our best show – there will be lasers, strobes and a two-and-a-half-hour set of pure music from Dark Side of the Moon and Wish You Were Here."

■ The Pink Floyd Dimensions will be playing at The Junction on June 16. Tickets cost £10 and are available from www.junction.co.uk or the box office on (01223) 511511.

A pretty little play
on tour

THE show that launched many of the greatest names in comedy returns to the ADC Theatre next week, where it will kick off a three month-long summer tour.

The Cambridge run of the Footlights' International Tour Show, Pretty Little Panic, will be followed by a string of London and UK performances before the production heads to the Edinburgh Fringe Festival and the US.

The Footlights' International Tour Show has sold out at the Fringe every year for the past decade, and the company hopes to maintain that track record this summer.

The Tour Show is the most eagerly awaited production in the Footlights' calendar, showcasing the finest material and performers the group has to offer. With many recent cast members being spotted and successfully starting out in their comedy careers off the back of it – including, most recently, Simon Bird and Joe Thomas (of The Inbetweeners fame).

■ Pretty Little Panic, ADC Theatre, June 14-25, 8pm. Tickets are £8 (£5 cons) from (01223) 300085 / www.adctheatre.com

The big film

X-MEN: FIRST CLASS
certificate 12A 131m

VERY good things come to those who wait.

After the sinking ship of Pirates Of The Caribbean: On Stranger Tides and the pounding headache of The Hangover Part II, the omens were distinctly ill for this summer season. Thankfully British director Matthew Vaughn, who lifted spirits last year with the deliciously foul-mouthed Kick-Ass, repeats the feat with this exhilarating, action-packed prequel based on the hugely popular Marvel Comics.

After the lukewarm reception to spin-off X-Men Origins: Wolverine, Vaughn delivers a sleek and satisfying opening chapter that establishes the mythology of the iconic characters and provides tantalising glimpses of where the series can go next.

The film opens in Poland in 1944 with young Erik Lehnsherr (Michael Fassbender) unlocking his devastating power of magnetism thanks to the provocation of a sadistic concentration camp commandant (Kevin Bacon).

At the same time in Westchester, New York, young telepath Charles Xavier (James McAvoy) meets shape-shifter Raven Darkholme (Jennifer Lawrence) and they become close friends.

Fast forward to 1962 and Erik is hunting down the commandant to exact revenge for his parents. It transpires that the German officer has reinvented himself as power-hungry globe-trotter Sebastian Shaw, who intends to spark nuclear war between Russia and America aided by mutant sidekicks Emma Frost (January Jones), Azazel (Jason Flemyng) and Riptide (Alex Gonzalez).

Standing in his way are Charles, Raven and five gifted mutants – Angel (Zoe Kravitz), Banshee (Caleb Landry Jones), Beast (Nicholas Hoult), Darwin (Edi Gathegi) and Havok (Lucas Till).

At first Charles and Erik work together to defeat Sebastian, their common enemy.

However, a grave rift opens between the mutant leaders, lighting the fuse on the brutal and bloody war between the X-Men and Magneto's brotherhood.

X-Men: First Class is a terrific reinvention, adhering closely to the comics to appease fans while entertaining cinema audiences with a tight script, snappy editing and directorial brio.

McAvoy and Fassbender are assured actors, capable of heartbreaking emotion, and there are plenty of tears here as nuclear war looms.

The only quibble is Fassbender's wavering accent, which jigs from Europe to County Kerry and resonates so strongly of the Emerald Isle by the closing frames that you have to question if the Polish prologue was fantasy.

Great garden gifts for dad

by Hannah Stephenson

IF you're thinking of giving your dad socks or a tie for Father's Day, think again, because there's a plethora of gifts which the green-fingered man in your life will appreciate.

If the shed's his haven, an escape from the household chores, a place he can sit quietly to reflect, then there are a few items which may suit him down to a tee.

If his shed wants a good tidy, treat him to a practical, stylish powder-coated tool rack in racing green with five tool clips plus rawlplugs and screws for fixing (£9.95, Burgon & Ball, www.burgonandball.com). At least then he won't be tripping over his spades or hoes when he wants to potter in his wooden haven.

You can personalise your gift to your shed-loving dad with a personalised wooden garden sign by Primitive Angel Country Store (£15, www.notonthehighstreet.com, 0845 259 1359). Each hanging is hand-cut, hand-painted then aged and finished off with rusty wire and homespun tie and embellishments. Wording can be changed and there's a choice of colour edging.

Anyone who's ever tired of watering hanging baskets may welcome an easy-to-water alternative, the Polanter, a vertical and modular planting system with carefully positioned holes to allow for year-round planting possibilities. Its real plus though is its internal watering facility. Just attach your hose pipe to it (it has a universal connector at the base) and your watering can be done in seconds. Available in a range of colours, it can be built into a variety of lengths to suit your requirements (from £21.99, www.polanter.co.uk or phone 0845 619 7266).

Give your dad a well-earned break by splashing out on an old-fashioned deck chair where he can rest his weary bones after gardening. A stylish leather trimmed deck chair with flag trim (£100) and two Union Flag cushions (£35) are available from Bradleys the Tannery (www.bradleysthetannery.co.uk, (01746)

DIGGING IN: with items such as this tool rack, above, in racing green, or a personalised sign for his shed, left.

No toolkit would be complete without a pocket knife, to cut those awkward branches or even snip a piece of garden twine. Burgon & Ball offers a range of pocket knives and miniature steel presentation sets, with brass handled mini sharpening steel in luxurious presentation box (£37.95, www.burgonandball.com).

When he's finished for the day and fancies a beer, but can't find the bottle opener, he might welcome a handy one on a wall outside which can't be moved or lost in the kitchen, and there are some terrific wall-mounted bottle openers on the market. Treat him to a trendy split screen VV campervan bottle opener with roof rack and surfboards, made from cold cast resin, with a metallic silver or bronze finish (www.beerbuddies.uk.com £19.95, (01736) 762 813).

If you're catering for the accident-prone dad, don't let him be without a gardeners' first aid kit, where he can locate plasters, antiseptic and tweezers easily, without having to stop and search the house. Check out Aspen & Brown's Gardeners First Aid Kit In A Tin (£7.95, www.aspenandbrown.com or call 0845 371 1171). The set contains plasters, antiseptic wipes, anti-sting wipes, tweezers, PVC gloves, crepe bandage roll, scissors and an eye pad.

For the man who has everything, upgrade his rusty old hand tools with a luxury version. The Havana leather gardening tool kit from Mufti features four hand tools made from aluminium and iron, which come in a hand-stained antique tan leather case for easy carrying (£85, www.mufti.co.uk).

For the dad whose shears are always blunt, take the hard work out of pruning with the Bosch ASB 10, 8LI cordless shrub shear. Highly manoeuvrable, with virtually no stalling, up to 100 minutes' run time and three hours to charge, it has three blades which are interchangeable and will take the donkey work out of pruning shrubs (£109.99, available from all good garden and DIY shops, www.bosch-garden.co.uk).

i40 Tourer boosts Hyundai's profile

HYUNDAI has announced that the all-new i40 Tourer, which goes on sale in September, will be priced from £18,395 (for the 1.6 GDi BlueDrive) with insurance from Group 12E – and, with the lowest 'Benefit in Kind' (BIK) cost in class, the i40 range is set to become an attractive alternative for company car drivers.

The Hyundai i40 Tourer will be available in three main trim levels (Active, Style and Premium) with the choice of three efficient engines, four power outputs and manual or automatic transmission.

Hyundai's Blue Drive technologies – incorporating Intelligent Stop & Go technology – are fitted as standard on all Active derivatives, and on the Style 1.7 CRDi 133bhp Blue Drive model ensuring CO2 emissions of 119g/km.

Standard features, which set the i40 apart from other competitor offerings, are 16-inch alloy wheels, Bluetooth connectivity with voice recognition, leather steering wheel with audio controls, electric heated door mirrors with integrated LED indicators, electric front and rear windows and electric parking brake with automatic hold function. Touch screen sat-nav with rear view camera, front and rear parking sensors, cruise control and dual zone climate control are standard on the mid-point 'Style' range.

The Premium models also get leather upholstery, panoramic sunroof, keyless entry and supervision instrument cluster with LCD colour display as standard, plus the option of the Lane

Departure Warning and Smart Parking Assist, heated leather steering wheel and ventilated front seats.

Designed and engineered at the company's European R&D headquarters in Rüsselsheim, Germany, prices for the Hyundai i40 Tourer peak at £25,895 for the 1.7 CRDi 134bhp Auto.

The i40 Tourer is the latest in Hyundai's most successful range ever – the firm announced this week that Hyundai has sold five million vehicles in Europe since the first Hyundai Pony was imported in 1977.

Allan Rushforth, senior vice president and chief operating officer of Hyundai Motor Europe, said: "Hitting five million sales is a wonderful achievement for Hyundai and it marks us out as a major player in what is the world's most competitive car market."

The Suzuki Swift DDiS is £12,890

SUZUKI has added a low emissions 1.3-litre DDiS model to the recently launched Swift range.

Available from June 1, the Swift DDiS uses a new 72bhp 1.3-litre engine, offers low emissions of 109g/km with combined fuel consumption of 67.3mpg, giving an estimated driving range of more than 500 miles.

An 8 per cent improvement in fuel consumption produces 9 per cent lower tailpipe emissions than the 1.3-litre diesel used in the previous Swift.

Emissions of 109g/km mean that the Swift DDiS costs a total of just £20 in annual VED charges.

Prices start at £12,890 as a five-door model with SZ3 grade which includes seven airbags, air conditioning, 16-inch alloy wheels, USB port and heated electric door mirrors as standard equipment.

The Suzuki Swift: Low-emissions 1.3-litre DDiS model added to range.

Insignia gets ecoFlex diesel plus new 1.4 petrol options

VAUXHALL has added an ultra-low emissions ecoFLEX diesel model and a new-to-range 1.4 Turbo petrol engine to its European Car of the Year-winning Insignia range.

With a 10 per cent improvement in CO<sub>2</sub> (115g versus 129g) over the outgoing model, the new Insignia ecoFLEX diesel now falls in to the lowest 13 per cent Benefit-In-Kind tax band for the first time, and there is no VED on the hatchback and saloon, and no VED in year one on the Sports Tourer. The 1.4 Turbo petrol engine also offers low 15 per cent BIK for the 2011/12 tax year.

The 2.0 CDTi ecoFLEX's combined CO<sub>2</sub> savings are achieved in part by the inclusion of Start/Stop technology, which is available for the first time on an Insignia.

Underbody aerodynamic measures and low rolling resistance tyres also contribute to the Insignia's low running costs.

The Insignia's two revised Euro 5 compliant 2.0 CDTi diesel engines are available with 127bhp or 154bhp power outputs and unlike Vauxhall's low emission rivals, improved economy isn't at the expense of performance.

Even fitted with the lower-powered 127bhp engine, the Insignia ecoFLEX achieves a top speed of 129mph, with 0-60mph taking just 10.4 seconds.

The 154bhp variant is still quicker, posting a 137mph top speed and 0-60mph in 8.9 seconds. Torque is also maintained against the outgoing model with 300Nm for the 127bhp engine and 350Nm on the 154bhp unit.

For those who prefer petrol engines, the new-to-range 1.4 Turbo engine combines power, efficiency and refinement, emitting just 129g/km of CO<sub>2</sub> and achieving a stingy 51.4mpg in the hatchback and saloon. Torque is increased to 200Nm from 175Nm on the outgoing model.

The new Insignia models also benefit from updated 18-inch five spoke alloy wheels and the inclusion of new satellite navigation units, Navi600 and Navi900. The Navi600 offers UK and Ireland mapping and main road networks across Europe, while the Navi900 features detailed European mapping.

Prices for the sub-120g diesel models start from £20,345 for the ES 2.0 CDTi (127bhp) ecoFLEX Start/Stop Hatchback and climb to £29,385 for the top-of-the-range SRI Nav Vx Line Red Sports Tourer (154bhp) ecoFLEX.

The 1.4 Turbo costs £18,680 for the ES Hatchback up to £27,110 for the SRI Nav Vx Line Red Sports Tourer.

Green light for 'adoption'

WESTON Colville Cricket Club have 'adopted' Burrough Green Primary School.

In an attempt to plug the gap which will be created by the closure of school sports partnerships, Cambridgeshire Cricket Board came up with the idea of local clubs linking with schools to create a partnership beneficial to both. As part of the programme, Weston Colville chairman Steve Potter (above, with some of the pupils) addressed an assembly at Burrough Green to explain what the club can offer its junior members and did practical work on bowling and catching. Pupils have the chance to attend the club's training sessions, and under future plans, coaches may go into the school to help the youngsters during term time and the school could run PE sessions at the club's ground. # He's Farr better!

MARTYN Farrant blasted an unbeaten 96 to keep Hundon top of the pile in Division Two of the Adams Harrison Midweek League.

He was supported by Ed Harper, who made 59, as Hundon set an imposing 200 for 7. Opponents Halstead gave it a good go, but fell 20 runs short of victory on 181 for 7. Hundon wicketkeeper Nick Jolland picked up three stumpings.

Farrant was not the only batsman on the rampage as Dan Goldsmith's belligerent unbeaten 82 saw Horseheath require just 12 overs to overhaul Cherry Tree's 115 for 8. John Buckle's 34 was Cherry Tree's best score.

Andrew Macdonald and Dave Furlow bowled Abington to the top of Division One with a 14-run win over Sawston.

Macdonald took 4 for 22 and Furlow 3 for 35 as Sawston were restricted to 130 for 8 in reply to Abington's 144 for 5. Keith Vincent was Abington's top scorer with 41, the same score posted by Vaughan Blanchard for the beaten side.

Also in the top division, Saffron Walden made light of being held to 111 for 8 by Weston Colville by skittling their opponents for 82.

Haverhill II remain top of Division 3A, despite a 26-run defeat at the hands of Brockley. Elliott Smith's unbeaten 62 led Brockley to 168 for 2, supported by James Hones (28), Mark Bennett (33) and Tristan Blackledge (31 not out).

Alex McCaffrey then snared 3 for 34 to help dismiss Haverhill for 142.

Jack Beaumont steered Hundon II to victory over Wrattling Lions with an unbeaten knock of 66. Tom Beaumont added 38 and Bruce Workmaster 35 as their side totalled 159 for 3. Tony Steel hit 62 not out and Kerry Ewens 27 in reply, but Lions could muster only 132 for 4.

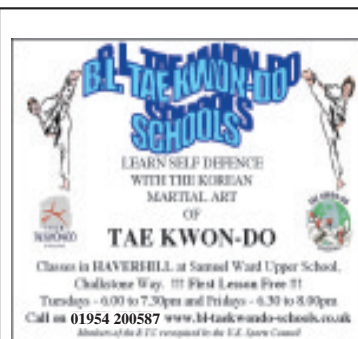

Highpoint's Jason Clayden hit 32 not out, but his side (106 for 9) lost to Gestingthorpe (111 for 3).

In Division 3B, Abington II lost the chance to put pressure on leaders Shelfords as, despite Will Lander's 38 and Will Kenzie's 31, they could reach only 126 for 4 in reply to Balsham's target of 150 for 2. Simon and James Marchant took three wickets apiece as Mill Green held Linton to 105 for 9 (Russell Griggs 37). The winners successfully defended their total of 121 for 9, in which Ed Ford made 27 and Roger Hickford took 3 for 11.

SAM'S THE MAN WITH A DOUBLE TROPHY HAUL

➤ FOOTBALL: Centre-back Sam Clayton picked up two awards as West Wrattling under-15s celebrated the conclusion of a season that saw them finish fourth in the Cambridge and District Colts League, under-15A. Clayton beat eight nominees for the Supporters' and Parents Player of the Year and also landed the Players' Player of the Year for TheSafebox.co.uk-backed side. The side's Golden Boot award went to Tom Pinker, scorer of 30 goals, while at the other end of the pitch, goalkeeper Jack

Vernon was rewarded for nine clean sheets with the Manager's Player of the Year trophy. Champion: Les Turner after his county triumph

The Turner prize

LES Turner has joined the ranks of county champions at the Haverhill club. Turner won the inaugural Past President's Cup at the Suffolk Golf Captain's meeting at Ufford Park near Woodbridge.

He gave every indication during the morning nine-hole round, when he finished second, that he would be a serious contender for the main competition, played over 18 holes as a stableford competition in the afternoon. The other county trophies at the club are the Suffolk Amateur Foursomes, won by David Quinney and Chris Vince, and the Seniors' Team Event (the Michael Thomas Trophy) won by Gerry Scott, Dennis Harkness and Eamon Bareham.

>> Cricket: League round-up

A WICKET with only his third ball in senior cricket thrust teenager Anthony Phillips into the limelight as Haverhill rocked unbeaten Wivenhoe in Division One of the Marshall Hatchick Two Counties Championship.

The 16-year-old deceived current Essex player Billy Godelman, who looked set for a big score after reaching his half-century.

Brought on at the pavilion end, Phillips baffled the Essex pro in flight and the batsman chipped a straightforward catch to Raj Singh at mid-on.

It was the icing on the cake of another impressive bowling display which started with Singh taking a wicket with his first ball and finished with Simon Youngs claiming 4 for 33 as the previously-unbeaten side stuttered to 114.

Phillips took another wicket to end with 2 for 13 off seven overs while Singh weighed in with 3 for 29.

Haverhill's reply got off to a stuttering start when two early wickets went down. Sam Powell (23) helped the score along to 83 for 5 and Scott Webb added further impetus with 32 as the home side earned their fourth win in seven games by three wickets. They trek to well-placed Frinton on Saturday.

■ An amazing five-wicket haul for Dan Pass was all in vain as Haverhill II fell to their first defeat of the season.

The Division Six leaders looked to be in a good position when they had Ipswich III on the ropes at 49 for 3. But Scott battled to 91 in a stand of 106 with Greig (28) before Pass took five wickets for just six runs as the home side slumped from 157 for 4 to 193 all out.

Haverhill's reply started at pace, with 17 runs off the first over but only Phil Jones (27) from the top of the order stuck around as they slid to 74 for 7 against Johnson, who at one point had taken five wickets for one run off five overs.

Tailenders Tom Saville (25), Steve Fox (16), Stu Ketteridge (18) and Pass (13 not out) got the score up to 148.

The seconds are at home to Kesgrave (1pm) on Saturday.

■ Adam Dellar fell two runs short of his century and Bill Moran made a half-century but Haverhill's Sunday first team lost by seven wickets at Ampton & Culford in the Hunts County Bats Sunday First XI Championship.

They are at home to Bury St Edmunds Academy on Sunday (1.30pm).

■ However, the Sunday seconds beat Risby by 40 runs in Division Four after totalling a gettable 185 for 7, which leaned heavily on Phillips' 62.

Although Risby started off briskly, Phillips and Ryan Fowler (4 for 22) applied the brakes and the visitors were all out with three overs remaining.

The seconds travel to Woolpit II on Sunday.

■ Josh Smith (5 for 16) and Adrian Westley (4 for 18) dismantled

Godmanchester II to help Weston Colville to a comprehensive seven-wicket win in Division Two of the Tucker Gardner Cambs and Hunts Premier League.

They skittled the strugglers to just 44, a target Weston Colville reached in just 10 overs.

■ Horseheath's middle order were wiped out by Ken Saunders, who finished with 5 for 20 to help Balsham win the Cricket Stick CCA League, Division One basement battle.

Horseheath were all out for 132, and, despite Martin Giles adding 3 for 44 to add his top score of 28, Balsham scrambled in at 134 for 7.
